

The Nelrod Education Fund (NEF) Scholarship for Underserved Youth

Deadline: May 31, 2019

Scholarship Notification: After July 31, 2019

Purpose: To provide educational and personal development opportunities to empower underserved, low-income youth residing in public and assisted housing who demonstrate a mature work ethic and an extraordinary will to succeed despite a lack of traditional resources.

Award Components: 1 (one) $1,000 Scholarship sufficient to encourage further education and to defray a portion of the cost and other materials. The number of eligible awards will be based on funding availability and the number of applicants.

Award Eligibility Criteria:

1. Applicant must be a current High school senior, no older than 22 years of age.
2. Must reside in government subsidized or other participating low-income housing provided by a Nelrod Consortium Partner Agency for no less than two years prior to award. (see www.nelrodeducationfund.org for a list of participating agencies)
3. Must be member of a "low-income" designated family. All public housing and section 8 residents are eligible.
4. Must be a "C" or "Near 'C'" average student with a cumulative GPA not to exceed 3.5 or be lower than 2.0 on the 4.0 grading scale. If you don't meet this requirement, you are ineligible and will be disqualified.
5. Must have Work Experience, community service experience, or extra-curricular involvement.
6. Must have plans to attend an accredited 4 or 2-year University or college, or other vocational, trade school, or career development program.
7. Scholarship funds released to winners upon verification of College or trade school enrollment by the NEF.

Note: Scholarship Awardees have one year post High School graduation to utilize scholarship funds.
